There's a moose on the loose,
The trees are with the breeze.
A moose on the loose,
He doesn't want to freeze.

Maine woods how I love your leaves,
pretty in the sunlight,
glisten in the moonlight.
I would like you to see.

Peeps love to sing,
slide in the snow.
Share food they bring,
they like to go.

White shimmering snow,
falls on the ground.
Peeps don't know,
they sleep so sound.

There's a moose on the loose,
The trees are with the breeze.
A moose on the loose,
He doesn't want to freeze.

Maine woods how I love your leaves,
pretty in the sunlight,
glisten in the moonlight.
I would like you to see.

Birch trees and oak
Have lost their leaves.
Some branches broke
In the winter breeze.

Raccoons and deer,
Peeps are their friends.
They sing so clear,
Don't let it end.

There's a moose on the loose,
The trees are with the breeze.
A moose on the loose,
He doesn't want to freeze.

Maine woods how I love your leaves,
pretty in the sunlight,
glisten in the moonlight.
I would like you to see.

There's a moose on the loose,
The trees are with the breeze.
A moose on the loose,
He doesn't want to freeze.
